

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Third Sunday of Lent-March 8th, 2026

Retreat March 14

9:00-Noon St. Anne Room

We will join with members of the OCIA program from St. Joseph, Andale, as we prepare for the Paschal Mystery. We'll spend some time with Christ in the desert, praying to discern and then have the courage to do the Father's will. Finally, we'll have time for questions about this journey of faith that all of us are walking.

Enemy #2-COMPLACENCY: “SOMEBODY ELSE WILL DO IT”

In the Body of Christ, there are no spectators; there are only stewards. “Here I am, send me!” (1 Cor 6:8)

The next enemy of stewardship is complacency: that subtle whisper that says, “Somebody else will take care of it.” When even one baptized person withholds participation, the Body is diminished. The Church is not something we attend; she is something we are. The Body functions only when its members move. Complacency sets in when disciples watch instead of serve. The pew becomes a bench; the liturgy becomes performance. The cure is co-responsibility: recovering our baptismal “yes.” Stewardship begins when we say, “Here I am.”

Spiritual Life Center

Life-Giving Wounds

Fri, Mar 20, 3:00 pm through

Sun, Mar 22, 3:30 pm

A healing retreat for adult children of divorce or separation

Every year, over one million children see their parents divorce, and half of all adults today have gone through the traumatizing experience of watching their parents split up. The impact of divorce and family brokenness leaves lasting wounds, but there is hope for healing.

The Respect Life & Social Justice Office, in partnership with Life-Giving Wounds Ministry, will present a healing retreat in March for adult children of divorce, separation, and family brokenness. This retreat will offer greater understanding of the wounds left by your parents' divorce, guidance concerning regaining the ability to love and trust others, and a place for an experience of Christ and community which will lead to deeper self-understanding and true healing.

This retreat includes meals and all materials.

For discounted rates for students and clergy/consecrated, call the Spiritual Life Center at 316-744-0167 to sign up.

God of power,
you sent your Son to be our Savior.
Grant that these catechumens, who,
