Enemy #2 - Assumption : “Everyone Already Knows This”

The third enemy of stewardship is assumption: the belief that everyone already understands it. A person may hear the word stewardship for years and still miss its heart. Without formation, it flattens into paperwork: forms, boxes, signatures. Irritation often follows, not from ingratitude, but from misunderstanding. People cannot love what they have never been taught to see. The cure is clear, patient formation. When the story is told again, wonder awakens, and stewardship lives again.

All our welcome to attend the OCIA classes

OCIA March 21st

The Wedding Feast of the Lamb

Jesus comes to us in the Eucharist as both the priest and the sacrifice. How do we understand the gift of His very Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, given to us during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass where heaven meets earth in a glorious banquet where we are the honored guests?

The Second Scrutiny

The Man Born Blind

Christ is our Light
in the darkness

Lord Jesus,
may they open
their hearts to you
in faith, may they confess their faults and lay bare
their hidden wounds. In your love free them from their infirmities,
heal their sickness,
quench their thirst
and give them
peace.

“Lord, bless these catechumens, and candidates, who have generously responded to the invitation of Jesus: “Come follow me.” Help them to persevere in their journey of faith.
Amen.”
