10:00 AM Mass- People of the Parish

Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him. Listen to the words of the Apostle: If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For just as he remained with us even after his ascension, so we too are already in heaven with him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

-St. Augustine

St. Boniface, Apostle to Germany 674-754, Memorial June 5

Before the Colorado and Wichita rail line, before Anderson and Dale, before a wooden church dedicated to St. Mark the Evangelist, there was the immigrant community of Germania. These brave souls left all they knew behind to come to a land that held promise. How many asked their patron, St. Boniface, for his intercession and protection as they faced the unknown? Wynfrith was born in England in around 674. The Angles had been converted, but Rome had fallen. Wynfrith found his way to the Benedictine Order whose vow of stability would pull the world back from chaos. Noting potential, Pope Gregory II changed his name to Boniface, a signal of mission, and sent him to the original Germania, to a wilderness, both in nature and in people. His task was to bring the light of the Gospel to the pagan Germanic tribes. In one such place was a huge oak tree that was said to be dedicated to Thor. To convince the people that no such god even existed, Boniface cut down the mighty Donar Oak. The people watched in expectation for him to be struck dead by lightning, or for the angry Thor to make it thunder, yet nothing happened. What did happen was the conversion and baptism of many Germans. Pope Gregory named Boniface a bishop and tasked him with spreading the faith throughout that unknown land. An angry mob eventually took his life, but found next to his body was a copy of St. Ambrose's The Advantage of Death. He was not afraid to die, to face the unknown, to go to a land of promise because he sought what was above. St. Boniface, patron of Germania, pray for us!
