Amen.-Collect for the Solemnity of Pentecost

Mary, Mother of the Church- June 10

In 2018, Pope Francis added a new Memorial to the universal calendar, Mary, Mother of the Church, to be celebrated the Monday after Pentecost. This celebration had occurred in several dioceses and religious communities throughout the world, especially after Pope Pius VI officially bestowed Mary with the title “Mother of the Church” at the closing of the Second Vatican Council in 1964. This title was not new, as even St. Ambrose used it in referring to the Blessed Mother back in the 4th century. We recall the Passion of the Lord, which we heard eight weeks ago, when Christ gave His Mother to John, and therefore the Church, as He offered up His last breaths on the cross. “In a wholly singular way [Mary] cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope, and burning charity in the Savior's work of restoring supernatural life to souls. For this reason she is a mother to us in the order of grace.” CCC968 Mary carried her Son, her Lord, in her very body, “Loving Him beyond all telling,” as we hear during Advent. She loved Him in their hidden life in Nazareth. As He began His public ministry, she loved who He loved-His Apostles, His disciples, any and all who gave heed to His words of life. As only a mother could, she strengthened her Son by her presence. In His agony, she was there. In His follower’s despair, she was their loving Mother whose presence encouraged them to hope. At the Resurrection, she shared their joy. At Pentecost, she shared their mission to go to the ends of the earth...a mission which was uniquely realized at her Assumption. Look at the face of Our Lady of Fatima, of Our Lady of Guadalupe, of Our Lady of La Vang, of Our Lady of Kibeho...she is the Mother of all of us. “The Mother of Jesus, in the glory which she possesses in body and soul in heaven, is the image and beginning of the Church as it is to be perfected in the world to come... she shines forth on earth until the day of the Lord shall come, a sign of certain hope and comfort to the pilgrim People of God” CCC 972. Mother Mary, pray for us!
