July is Dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus

In 1849, Italy was in the throes of a Civil War. Pope Pius IX was exiled, but after he decreed the first Sunday of July was to be dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus, the war ended. In our present time of unrest, perhaps we, too, may practice this devotion, begging for peace from the Heart that shed drops of blood for love of us. The Preface for the Votive Mass of the Precious Blood: O God, who by the Precious Blood of your only Begotten son have redeemed the whole world, preserve in us the work of your mercy, so that, ever honoring the mystery of our salvation, we may merit to obtain its fruits. Through our lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the holy spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati-July 4

I know this bulletin is coming out after July 4, but it's still a week away as this bulletin is being prepared... I couldn't let slip the fact that Pope Leo has announced that both Pier Giorgio Frassati and Carlo Acutis will be canonized together on September 7th of this year. Pier Frassati died 100 years ago this July 4. He was only 24 years old. Though his parents did not practice their Catholic faith, young Pier fell in love with the Mass, the Eucharist, our Lady, and the beauty of God's creation. He is known as the Man of the Beatitudes because of his selfless dedication to the poor. Much has been written on this, but let's instead focus on the fact that he was a good friend. It is said that often Pier would spout, "That one is my friend." Even if his only contact with that person was to pass along some food, he would remember that person and follow up. Pier also relied on his intimate circle of friends, many of whom were in Catholic Action with him. In a letter to his friend, Marco Beltramo, just three months before he contracted polio, Pier wrote, "In earthly life, after the affection of parents and sisters, one of the most beautiful affections is that of friendship: and I should thank God every day because He has given me such good friends who form a precious guide for me throughout my life." Pier would laugh, play games, sports, hike, compare literature and music... do all the things we do with our friends. He was also not afraid to pray with them and encourage them to go to Mass and confession. In another letter he wrote, perhaps with a foreknowledge which saints have, "Earthly friendships cause our hearts pain at the separation of those we love, but I would like us to swear a pact that knows no earthly boundaries or temporal limits: union in prayer."
