CATHOLIC CHURCH

July 27th, 2025 - The 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." - Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

We would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to Jenny Peloquin for her incredible service as our parish secretary this past year. We are so grateful for the time, energy, and love she has shared with us. Jenny is returning to her true calling as a teacher at St. Joseph Ost, where we know, she will continue to bless others with her gifts.

Columbarium Vases

Fr. Pat has approved flower vases that can be displayed on the columbarium in the cemetery. There is currently one vase next to a loved one on the columbarium. The vases are small but can hold a nice flower arrangement. Fr. Pat would like these vases to be used by the families of the deceased to display their flowers. This will keep the columbarium neat and uncluttered. The vases are $45 each. For further information or to order a vase, call John Weber at 651-6995.

Saints Joachim and Anne Feast Day: July 26th

Joachim and Anne can help us reflect on the beauty of marriage and the gift of children. Their inability to conceive gave them great pain because they viewed children as a precious gift of marriage. Family life today is under great stress. The example of these two saints inspires us to value our family relationships and to make our homes true domestic churches where everyone can learn to give and receive love.

Saints Joachim and Anne, pray for us, especially for married couples and families. Pray that all families will follow your example of a life centered on love. You helped to prepare the way for Christ, the Lord. May our families be places where Jesus dwells among us. Amen.
