Join us for the second episode of The Art of Dying Well. We'll explore what happens to us when we die, how we will be judged, and how death is not the end. What is the afterlife, really? October 30th, at 6:30 PM in the Marian Room. Bring a friend!

Ready to join a small group of other couples in our parish?

Fiat Couples Groups offer an opportunity to set aside time (once a month) for your marriage, which is the primary human relationship in our society. Whether you are a newlywed, surrounded by growing little ones, married 20 years or even empty-nesters, you are invited to come and see what these evenings look like. There's no obligation to join, but to experience the benefits of such a group. We are married couples, being intentional with forming community prayer and support through laughter - and food! Nursing babies are welcome.

There are three dates available. See the sign-up genius for more information: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/8050948A9A92BA5F94-58896572-fiat> Our host couples are Joe & Carolyn Spexarth, Ben & Madison Heath, and Jeremy & Darci Shideler. If you are interested, but unable to attend, contact Carolyn at carospex@gmail.com. Groups will be forming and ready to roll out starting in January. For more information, check out this national organization at www.AnnunciationMinistries.com.
